Application for Developer

Hello,

Your position has drawn particular attention in combination with the prospect of professional development of attractive activities.

I have been interested in development for many years, and I have experienced that interest in programming. Design, algorithm problem solving, challenges fascinate me. This interest also appears in my training. Because I have already had several projects in both study and practice.

In 2017 at Smilegate in Korea, I interned with Python to develop web games with the company's server developer. The internship made me so happy that I volunteered for the winter vacation there for two months. The company was very satisfied with my performance as you can see from the certificate.

I would like to get the developer position. Moreover, I have various experiences. In 2019, I finished my internship with Rasa in chatbot development at Oneday Korea, and in 2020, I participated in a web project with Java. I am currently a Full-time Developer at KEHAG Energiehandel GmbH and I am working with C#(.Net) on web and invoice development. More information can be found in my portfolio.

My strength is thorough preparation. So, I'm preparing for things I don't know. I'm preparing for the first attempt. I took a class for 4 months to learn about German language and culture in Korea because it was my first time working in Germany. During this process, I was certified as B1 within 3 months. I look at the opportunity to gain experience in various fields and use this experience with you later.

I am very pleased to contribute passionately and devotedly to your company's success soon. And I look forward to being invited to an interview.

Best regards,

INTERMEDIATE MID

Speakers at the Intermediate Mid sublevel are able to handle successfully a variety of uncomplicated communicative tasks in straightforward social situations. Conversation is generally limited to those predictable and concrete exchanges necessary for survival in the target culture. These include personal information related to self, family, home, daily activities, interests and personal preferences, as well as physical and social needs, such as food, shopping, travel, and lodging.

Intermediate Mid speakers tend to function reactively, for example, by responding to direct questions or requests for information. However, they are capable of asking a variety of questions when necessary to obtain simple information to satisfy basic needs, such as directions, prices, and services. When called on to perform functions or handle topics at the Advanced level, they provide some information but have difficulty linking ideas, manipulating time and aspect, and using communicative strategies, such as circumlocution.

Intermediate Mid speakers are able to express personal meaning by creating with the language, in part by combining and recombining known elements and conversational input to produce responses typically consisting of sentences and strings of sentences. Their speech may contain pauses, reformulations, and self-corrections as they search for adequate vocabulary and appropriate language forms to express themselves.

In spite of the limitations in their vocabulary and/or pronunciation and/or grammar and/or syntax, Intermediate Mid speakers are generally understood by sympathetic interlocutors accustomed to dealing with non-natives.

Overall, Intermediate Mid speakers are at ease when performing Intermediate-level tasks and do so with significant quantity and quality of Intermediate-level language.

When responding to Intermediate and Advanced level tasks, speaker's performance is in the lower range in terms of Intermediate Mid level delivery, fluency and production.

Official ACTFL Rating	INTERMEDIATE MID - 1

• ACTFL INTERMEDIATE LEVEL SPEAKERS - FUNCTIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Speakers at the Intermediate level:

- Consistently initiate, maintain and end a simple conversation about familiar topics, related to their daily life.
- Recombine learned material in order to express personal meaning.
- Ask and answer simple questions and satisfy simple personal needs and social demands required to survive in the target culture.
- Can be understood by listeners who are used to dealing with non-native speakers.

• ACTFL INTERMEDIATE MID 1 - SPEAKERS

Communication Tasks	Can communicate minimally about self, others and everyday life. Can handle short social interactions in everyday situations. Can ask and answer a variety of questions to get information and satisfy basic needs.
Contexts / Content	Communicate using predictable exchanges necessary for survival in the target culture, including personal information related to self, family, home, daily activities, interests and personal preferences and physical and social needs.
Discourse type	Produce responses that typically consist of simple sentences and some strings of sentences. Speech contains frequent pauses, reformulations and self-corrections as speaker searches for adequate vocabulary.
Accuracy	In spite of vocabulary limitations, grammar errors, and accent/pronunciation issues, is understood by sympathetic listeners used to dealing with non-native speakers.

• TIPS FOR IMPROVING PROFICIENCY

- Practice giving more detailed descriptions. When talking about people, places, things, and routines, add detail to your description by using adjectives and adverbs to define nouns and verbs.
- Improve accuracy in simple, basic forms: Basic sentence-level grammar in present time needs to continue to improve, as you also start to learn to talk about what happened (past) and what will happen (future).
- Expand discrete sentences to strings of sentences. Practice producing longer responses consisting of multiple sentences. Practice using connecting words and simple clauses to create bridges between sentences. Begin to use sequencing terms to give a beginning-to-end description of the routine things you do every day.
- Speak in all time frames. Talk about things that are happening, have happened and will happen, with the objective of improving your ability to use the correct verb form and other time markers to distinguish major time frames: past, present and future.
- Confidence and flow: Practice speaking aloud to improve the flow of your speech to reduce hesitations, pauses, stops and restarts, and dead-ends.

Listening Skills	Level	Your Performance
Listening	Intermediate	Test takers who receive a score at the INTERMEDIATE level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These demands can include difficult vocabulary (uncommon terms or colloquial or figurative language), complex grammatical structures, and/or abstract or complex ideas. However, lectures and conversations that require the listener to make sense of unexpected or seemingly contradictory information may present some difficulty. When listening to conversations and lectures like these, test takers at the INTERMEDIATE level typically can <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>understand explicitly stated main ideas and important details, especially if they are reinforced, but may have difficulty understanding main ideas that must be inferred or important details that are not reinforced;</li> <li>understand how information is being used (for example, to provide support or describe a step in a complex process);</li> <li>recognize how pieces of information are connected (for example, in a cause-and-effect relationship);</li> <li>understand, though perhaps not consistently, ways that speakers use language for purposes other than to give information (for example, to emphasize a point, express agreement or disagreement, or convey intentions indirectly); and</li> <li>synthesize information from adjacent parts of a lecture or conversation and make correct inferences on the basis of that information, but may have difficulty synthesizing information from separate parts of a lecture or conversation.</li> </ul>

Speaking Skills		Level*	Your Performance
Speaking about Familiar Topics		Fair	Your responses indicate you are able to speak in English about your personal experiences and opinions in a mostly clear and coherent manner. Your speech is mostly clear with only occasional errors. Grammar and vocabulary are somewhat limited and include some errors. At times, the limitations prevent you from elaborating fully on your ideas, but they do not seriously interfere with overall communication.
Speaking about Campus Situation		Limited	Your responses indicate that you have some difficulty speaking in English about information from conversations, newspaper articles, university publications, and so on. While you are able to talk about some of the key information from these sources, limited grammar and vocabulary may prevent you from fully expressing your ideas. Problems with pronunciation make it difficult for listeners to understand you at times.
Speaking about Academic Course Content		Limited	In your responses, you are able to use English to talk about the basic ideas from academic reading or lecture materials, but, in general, you include few relevant or accurate details. It is sometimes difficult for listeners to understand your responses because of problems with grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. Overall, you are able to respond in a general way to the questions, but the amount of information in your responses is limited and the expression of ideas is often vague and unclear.
Writing Skills		Level*	Your Performance
Writing based on Reading and Listening		Fair	You responded to the task, relating the lecture to the reading, but your response indicates weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• an important idea or ideas may be missing, unclear, or inaccurate;</li> <li>• there may be unclarity in how the lecture and the reading passage are related; and/or</li> <li>• grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.</li> </ul>
Writing based on Knowledge and Experience		Fair	You expressed ideas with reasons, examples, and details, but your response indicated weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• you may not provide enough specific support and development for your main points;</li> <li>• your ideas may be difficult to follow because of how you organize your essay or because of the language you use to connect your ideas; and/or</li> <li>• grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.</li> </ul>

Additional information about TOEFL iBT scores can be found on the Test Takers section of the TOEFL website at www.ets.org/toefl.

* Skill levels for speaking and writing individual skills are estimates of performance at the item level. The total writing and speaking scaled scores and ranges are more accurate. Therefore it is not appropriate to combine the individual skill levels. Doing so may lead to apparent inconsistencies between the diagnostic feedback and reported writing and speaking scores.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SCORE USERS: This PDF score report was downloaded and printed by the test taker. It is not an Official Score Report sent by ETS directly to an organization designated by the test taker. If you find it necessary to verify the scores on this report, please contact the TOEFL Score Verification Service at +1-800-257-9547 or +1-609-771-7100. Scores more than two years old cannot be reported or validated.
